WHAT IS BLACK EMPOWERMENT WORKS?

Black Empowerment Works promotes Black self-determination, social mobility and economic prosperity by providing resources and funding to grassroots/community-based, Black-led work. Since its inception in 2020, the program has invested over $3 million in 100 ideas and their leaders.

This work exists for two reasons:

1. There is an over-representation of Black families experiencing poverty and an underinvestment in community-based, Black-led work and expertise to address it.
2. We are compelled to hold spaces and provide resources to imagine and bring to life unencumbered, self-determined Black futures.

More than just a grant fund, Black Empowerment Works seeks to contribute to the ecosystem of support for Black changemakers. We provide access to capacity-building resources, opportunities for partnership, access to a shared workspace and more.

This year, in partnership with bi3 and P&G Always brand, we are positioned to invest $1.6 million and engage more than 40 community members to make those investment decisions. Applicants can apply for up to $40,000, with the grants being renewable contingent upon performance and funds available. Applicants may submit only one application per year.

WHAT ARE WE LOOKING TO FUND?

We seek to fund Black-led work focused on building solutions and/or aligning systems to help families in our community thrive, with an intentional focus on supporting Black families. This grant opportunity is open to nonprofit 501(c)(3) organizations, for-profit social enterprises, community coalitions and individuals whose work meets our eligibility requirements.

Applicants may submit only one application per year, with request amounts ranging from $4,000 to $40,000.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

To be considered for funding, applying organizations/individuals and their work must meet the following eligibility requirements:

- Geography: Located and providing services within the UWGC nine-county service region (Hamilton, Clermont, and Brown counties in Ohio; Boone, Campbell, Grant, and Kenton counties in Kentucky; Dearborn and Ohio counties in Indiana).
- Black Leadership and Labor: At least 60% of the leaders of the work (those empowered to make decisions on behalf of the group) identify as Black. The work has an intentional (though not necessarily exclusive) focus on advancing the well-being of Black people.
- Grassroots/Community-Based: Community members, especially those directly or indirectly impacted by the focus of your work, have and continue to shape the work you do. Example: staff leading this work have direct experiences with the challenges your work seeks to overcome.
- Community Benefit: The work benefits the community rather than benefitting any private individual, group or business. The work has a focus on individuals, families and/or communities with limited access to resources.
- Actionable: The work is far enough along in development or execution that if provided funding, it could produce measurable results by September 2024.

FOCUS AREAS

We are open to a diverse array of work. The focus areas you'll be asked to select from are listed below. You can pick more than one.

- Quality Early Child Care and Education (Ages 0-5)
- Quality K-12 Education, including academic after-school time.
- Youth Social Emotional Skill Building and Leadership Development
- Career and Post-Secondary Preparation, Exploration and Training
- Financial Empowerment and Asset Building
- Basic Needs and Housing
- Birth Equity (assurance of optimal births)
- Physical Health
- Mental Health
- Systems Change, Mobilizing and Movement Building
- Community and Social Connectedness
- Other (please describe)

FUNDING POOLS & SPECIAL FOCUS AREAS

This year, Black Empowerment Works will invest in organizations through three funding pools: general pool, the Always Confidence Fund, and the bi3 Health Equity Fund. Selected work will be funded through ONE of these sources.

In total, we will have approximately $1.6 million to invest.

General Pool

This is the primary (and largest) funding pool for Black Empowerment Works. This general pool will invest in strong work that meets the eligibility criteria.

Always Confidence Fund

In alignment with the Black Empowerment Works focus and P&G Always brand's mission to unleash girls' and women's confidence, the Always Confidence Fund will invest in Black Empowerment Works-eligible work that:

- Tackles societal barriers on period stigma and gender inequality.
- Supports confidence-building of puberty-aged people with periods.
- Provides access to period products and education to help people with periods understand their bodies.

Priority will be given to work that addresses one of the opportunity areas lifted up by the panel of girls who helped to shape the fund:

1. Frank conversations and education around periods to reduce stigma and mystery.
2. Period education for boys and men.
3. Reshape, challenge school policies and practices that negatively impact girls.
4. Equip public spaces, especially schools, with a diverse array of period and period-adjacent products
5. Create/provide opportunities for girls to explore their interests, whether they be academic, creative, or career focused.
6. Provide space for girls to practice positive self-care.
7. Equip people to advocate for the safety and protection of girls (and equip girls to advocate for themselves).

bi3 Health Equity Fund

In partnership with Black Empowerment Works, the bi3 Health Equity Fund invests in Black-led nonprofit organizations working to improve health outcomes and build health equity, transforming the health and well-being of all people in Greater Cincinnati.

In 2023-2024, the bi3 Health Equity Fund will prioritize organizations focused on the following:

- Accelerating birth equity: Projects that improve the birth experience and reduce health disparities in maternal and infant health, resulting in better outcomes for Black families, including initiatives that address racial and social barriers that lead to poor outcomes.
- Improving youth mental health: Projects that improve mental health and provide mental health services, resources and assistance for Black youth, including projects focused on prevention and reducing stigma. Special priority will be given to youth-led projects.

Organizations must be a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization to apply.

USES OF FUNDS

Through Black Empowerment Works, we trust that organizations know best how to spend the grant dollars to carry out the work. To that end, these funds are truly flexible and can be used for a broad range of purposes including but not limited to:

- Personnel (staff costs)
- Equipment/supplies
- Technology/software
- Assistance to individuals
- Indirect costs (rent, utilities other administrative expenses)
- Research and evaluation
- Professional fees and travel

What's most important is the ability to demonstrate that with funds secured (this grant and any other resources), the work can be carried out.

QUALITIES OF A STRONG APPLICATION

We know there is no shortage of amazing ideas to be funded, and we know we won't be able to fund all the strong ideas proposed. Qualities of strong applications include:

- The proposed work is clear, defined.
- The provided budget and timeline are clear and feasible.
- With funding and other supports, the organization can demonstrate having sufficient capacity and resources to carry out the proposed work.
- The work can produce measurable works within a year (September 2023-September 2024)
- The work demonstrates a strong alignment to the BEW eligibility criteria, especially the "community-based" and "community benefit" criteria.
- The work demonstrates strong alignment to one of the focus areas identified or makes a strong case for another focus area.

WHAT WON'T WE FUND?

While we aim to make this program accessible to a variety of different organizational structures and work, we do have some restrictions around funding. Funding cannot be used for the following purposes:

- General business operating support. This is not a traditional small-business grant. Applications must demonstrate a community benefit, aligned to one of the focus areas and beyond a benefit provided to employees and stakeholders of the business.
- Capital campaigns (a targeted fundraising effort to raise a large amount of money in a specific timeframe for a large project, like securing or developing a property)
- Political campaigns or partisan political work
- Debt reduction or work occurring prior to the grant period.
- Work occurring outside of the UWGC nine-county service region.

HOW WILL DECISIONS BE MADE?

Big picture, our goal is to invest in a diverse portfolio of work in terms of organizational size, structure, focus areas, communities served and tenure (new work and organizations vs. existing work and organizations).

Grantees will be selected by community reviewers. All applications will be reviewed by at least three reviewers. In addition to the written applications, Grant Applicant/Reviewer Conversations will take place, where applicants can share more about their work and reviewers can ask additional questions to inform their decision-making.

All grant applications will be assessed using a standard rubric. Assessment criteria include:

- Alignment to Black Empowerment Works eligibility criteria and mission.
- Clarity of proposal; how the work addresses an existing community opportunity or need.
- Feasibility of budget
- Demonstrated capacity to carry out the work proposed.
- Actionability and measurability of work
